The Arctic Equestrian Games take place the 5th time in 2010. Thousands of spectators will be enjoying presentations of Horses, top sport and shows during the 11 day event in the Brunstad Conference Center, about 1.5 hours away from Oslo.

In 2009 an excess of 16.000 horse-enthusiastic visitors from all age groups were excited with the biggest Norwegian horse festival. 600 horses were the center of the comprehensive program, which was the perfect mix between sport, show, entertainment and music. In 2009 a price money equivalent to approximately 200.000 Euro was awarded.

The "AEG" is well known in the North of Europe and is a mandatory event for all horse fans.

HIPPOEVENT will be reporting at length and live from this event in 2010.
